

Nuclear Energy in the South West

Business Opportunities in New Nuclear Energy
– “What’s in it for me?”

Tuesday 30th November 2010, 8.30am registration

Keynote speaker Lord Marland
Parliamentary Under Secretary of State
Department of Energy and Climate Change
Plus speakers from EDF, Horizon and Amec

The conference will be split into two sections, one to look at the industry’s current strategy globally, nationally and regionally and then to explore “what’s in it for me”? The conference is intended for anybody interested in the opportunities that the forthcoming nuclear energy new build programme will bring.

Venue

Ramada Bristol City Hotel
Redcliffe Way, Bristol, BS1 6NJ

Date

Tuesday 30th November 2010

Time

8.30am registration for 9.30am start –
1.00pm followed by networking lunch

Cost

£85.00 per head

How to book

The delegates can book via:

[www.eazybook.com/
nuclearenergyinthesouthwest](http://www.eazybook.com/nuclearenergyinthesouthwest)

Places are limited and so you are asked to book early to ensure your place as this conference is expected to sell out.

CONSTRUCTING EXCELLENCE
Bristol Club